TRIBUTES TO THE DEAD

Lawyers Honor
Paul Neumann's
Memory.

BENCH AND BAR
MAKE ADDRESSES

Final Ceremonies in Loving Memory of Distinguished and Beloved Hawaiian Attorney.

The Hawaiian Bar Association yesterday added its tribute to the many testimonials that have been offered testifying to the high esteem and respect which the late Paul Neumann was held by his fellow men while he was in the flesh.

The bench was occupied by Judge Estee, Chief Justice Frear, and Justices Perry and Gaibraith. When the court was called to order, ex-Judge Whiting, one of the committee that had been appointed to frame the resolutions, arose, and after giving a short personal address regarding the deceased, and dwelling on those characteristics that made him honored and respected by those that were privileged to call him their friend, presented the following tribute to the memory of the deceased:

"Whereas, the Honorable Paul Neumann, the first president of this association, has been removed from our midst by death;

"Resolved, that deeply deploring our loss, we, as an association, do place on record, in affectionate remembrance of our departed friend, the expression of our appreciation of his genial nature and kindly sympathy for all with whom he came in contact, which made him beloved by all men.

"Lawyer, scholar, friend.
"Resolved, that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the widow and family of Mr. Neumann in their affliction;

"Resolved, that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Supreme Court."

After the resolutions had been read, Chief Justice Frear arose and made a few remarks bearing upon the occasion. Said he:

"The sentiments that have been passed are, I am sure, common to every one present. So general are they that it is not necessary for me to add anything at this time. The late Paul Neumann occupied high positions, he was an old member of the bar, was prominent in the life of the community, and was learned and brilliant, but it was not in these things that he attracted attention most, and not for these characteristics that he will live in our memories. He will be remembered chiefly for what he was as a man and a friend, for the large place he filled in the hearts of those who knew him—a place such as is in the power of few to make and keep."

The courtroom was well filled with members of the association, who had gathered to pay their respects as professional brethren to the memory of the deceased. Among those present were General Hartwell, ex-Judge W.
L. Stanley, J. M. Vivas, W. A. Whiting, Attorney General Dole, F. M. Hatch, J. T. De Bolt, Judge Davidson, I. M.
Long, Arthur Wilder, E. B. McClanahan, J. L. Kaulukou, E. R. Dowthitt, A. G. M. Robertson, George A. F. Davis, W. O. Smith, T. McCants Stewart, F. E. Thompson, F. Peters, L. A. Dickey, ex-Judge E. R. Silliman and Governor Cleghorn.

THE BROTHERS DEFENDED.

No Truth in the Anonymous Rumors About Young Weed's Case.

Editor Advertiser: "Let all use justice and moderation in criticizing."

It is very painful to me and my mother and sisters to be forced by circumstances to appear in print, by the anonymous gadabouts of Honolulu.

There is not a speck of truth in the street report that my brother, developed typical in St. Louis College, as he was able to be about and go home by himself hours before the fever came on him, and far anyone to say to the contrary—well, they know not whereof they speak. I think if some of our dearly loved people in Honolulu will keep their noses in their pockets, the community at large will not miss them and their bungling.

I do this, dear editor, not from selfish motives but in vindication of the Brothers at St. Louis College, as they all feel badly at the loss of my brother.

Thanking you for this space, I remain, yours,
FRED. W. WEED.
